1. The Zadar shipyard employs about 400 workers. Ships are constructed entirely of wood and are built according to plans received from Fiume.
2. A machine shop, employing about 100 skilled workers, is located in the yard for engine repairs. The yard works for the Navy, but also effects repairs on boats of the nationalized fishing cooperatives. 50X1-HUM
3. At present there are 18 escort vessels, of fishing boat construction, being built for the Navy. They are 20 x 5 x 4 meters, and will be equipped with [redacted] engines of 450 horsepower, giving a speed of 10 to 12 knots. Five boats have already been completed and the remainder are due for completion [redacted] 50X1-HUM
4. [redacted] the Navy has 200 boats of this type under construction. Plans have also been drawn up for turning out a larger vessel, some 30 meters long. These boats are to be equipped with engines of Yugoslav manufacture, probably from Fiume.
